Café terra is a community grounded with Nature

They help to explore Himalayas through education and engagement. It is a unique ecosystem of local communities and “green-thinking” individuals, who have come together to spread the message of saving the delicate eco-system of Himalayas through dialogue and events.

One of its wings UKSAR (Uttarakhand Search and rescue) is the first and only organisation to offer SAR Services in the Himalayan mountain regions of Uttarakhand. Their search and rescue professionals respond to backcountry emergencies and wilderness disasters 24hrs a day, 365 days a week. UKSAR is a voluntary organisation run by café terra.

The Café terra team led by Mr. Vivek Binopal will take care of all activities during the trip. All the members of the team are certified Wilderness First Responders and volunteers for UKSAR.
